

PHL CELEBRATES 2026 MILESTONES

Career landmarks continue from the regular season into the opening round of the playoffs

The Pegasus Horseshoe League would like to congratulate Casey Santos and the many players who added major career milestones to their résumés during the closing weeks of the 2026 regular season and the opening round of the playoffs.

Casey entered the postseason fresh off reaching 8,000 career regular-season points and winning the 2026 Scoring Championship with 722 points and a league-leading 13.37 PPG. He then added two significant playoff landmarks in Round 1, becoming only the second player in recorded PHL history, after Gerry Santos, to surpass 1,000 officially recorded career playoff points. Casey finished the round with 1,023 playoff points and also became the first player in the recorded database to reach 300 career playoff singles, finishing Round 1 with 303. He scored 27 points with 7 ringers and a double in two games, averaging 13.50 PPG during Whole Lotta Pitches' opening series.

Sean Gomes also continued climbing the record book. After surpassing 9,000 career regular-season points during 2026 and finishing the season with 9,704, Sean scored 47 points in Round 1. That performance raised his officially recorded playoff total to 685 points and moved him past Chris Kelly (674) and Bobby Almeida (682) into third place on the PHL's recorded career playoff scoring list.

The 2026 regular season featured milestones throughout the league. Todd Andrews joined Sean in the 9,000-point club and finished the year with 9,229 career points. Tom Wolfe crossed 5,000 and finished at 5,125; Marc Rousseau surpassed 3,000 and reached 3,165; Devin Santos moved beyond 2,000 to 2,031; and Willie Coats and Larry Kitchen each joined the 1,000-point club, finishing the regular season at 1,018 and 1,056, respectively.

From major career scoring thresholds to new positions on the playoff leaderboards, the end of the 2026 regular season and the opening of the postseason provided another impressive collection of accomplishments. Congratulations to Casey, Sean, Todd, Tom, Marc, Devin, Willie, Larry and everyone continuing to add their names to PHL history.
